Our Story

In 2007, a group of A/E and software veterans (that's us) noticed that many A/E firms were being treated as cash cows.

We imagined a different world — one where A/E firms weren't forced to accept clunky, unsupported, overpriced ERP systems with no attractive upgrade paths. Unanet A/E, powered by Clearview, was born out of our desire to re-imagine excellence in the A/E software space. After our initial launch, we quickly learned that many people were willing to join us in rejecting the status quo, and as a result, we've seen consistent organic growth year over year. Today, Unanet A/E is the most powerful A/E software solution available.
