The Rehancement Group Streamlines Their Business with Unanet

CHALLENGES

- The Rehancement Group had been on Deltek's GCS tool and moved to Costpoint. They found Costpoint very difficult to use.
- Basic financials were needed on a regular basis and were very time-consuming to gather
- Management was unable to grab the reports they needed to operate efficiently
- They found that Costpoint did not have the project management capabilities that they needed
- Were lacking a true partner who would help them be successful
- Lacked the data needed to make efficient decisions

"The visibility into our business has been transformative. We have the data and insight to really drive profit. Not only did we gain a great product, but we gained excellent support. We are no longer at odds with our software provider. We have a true partner who is there to ensure our success."

- David Baker, President, The Rehancement Group
